4. SBILS and your personal information

Applications or enquiry forms submitted via sbils.co.uk will only be used for the purposes specified in this Privacy Policy and the 'use of personal data' statement you acknowledge on the form prior to submission.

Information you enter into a specific product search or enquiry form may be shared with third parties such as credit reference and fraud prevention agencies. Where required all the companies we work with are FCA regulated. There may be circumstances where we are required by law to provide your information.

Prior to submission of your personal information, we will ensure that you have access to this privacy policy. We will gather your express permission to use the data you entrust us with before you provide it to us.

As an Information Controller we may use the data you provide in several ways. These may include:

- To further support the development of products and services within the SBILS group; to assess lending and credit risks; to carry out regulatory checks; for fraud and creditworthiness checks; specific marketing and updates on your account.
- Where we feel information is deliberately misleading or fraudulent, we reserve the right to pass details to fraud prevention agencies.
- We may use your information to assess and prevent fraud and money laundering.

We will keep your personal information secure and whilst in our possession will maintain its confidentiality. We will only share your information where you have given your express permission. This will generally be with credit reference and identification verification agencies during the application process for both borrower and investor accounts. Following a credit approval, we will share details of the conduct of your account with the same agencies. Investor information will be shared with HMRC annually as part of our obligations and the specified bank that you have advised us of during your application for the purposes of making payments to you.

5. Personal information security

eMoneyHub Ltd treat the security of your personal information seriously. eMoneyHub Ltd take reasonable technical and organisational precautions to prevent the loss of your data.

We store information you provide in our secure database. All pages on the sbils.co.uk website relating to your personal information are protected using SSL technology.

Viewing of your data will be restricted to those persons who require access for the purposes the information was provided to us in the first instance. Any further use of the data will be in accordance with your express wishes provided at the time of submission or where you advise in the future.

Your data will be securely retained for the duration of your relationship with eMoneyHub Ltd. During this period the data will be used within the guidelines of this policy. Following the end of your relationship with eMoneyHub Ltd the data will be retained for a further 6 years or up to the point you successfully exercise your right to erasure of your data.

We are unable to guarantee the security of data sent over the internet or via email.

6. Credit Reference Agency Information Notice (CRAIN)

In order to process your application, we will perform credit and identity checks on you with one or more credit reference agencies ('CRAs'). Where you take banking services from us, we may also make periodic searches at CRAs to manage your account with us.

To do this, we will supply your personal information to CRAs, and they will give us information about you. This will include information from your credit application and about your financial situation and financial history. CRAs will supply to us both public (including the electoral register) and shared credit, financial situation and financial history information and fraud prevention information.

We will use this information to:

- Assess your creditworthiness and whether you can afford to take the product.
- Verify the accuracy of the data you have provided to us.
- Prevent criminal activity, fraud and money laundering.
- Manage your account(s).
- Trace and recover debts; and
- Ensure any offers provided to you are appropriate to your circumstances.

We will continue to exchange information about you with CRAs while you have a relationship with us. We will also inform the CRAs about your settled accounts. If you borrow and do not repay in full and on time, CRAs will record the outstanding debt. This information may be supplied to other organisations by CRAs.
